III. REGISTRATION

In order to become a VCQRU designated Subscriber and/or a VCQRU designated Member with respect to the VCQRU Services, you must comply with VCQRU’s then current registration policies and procedures and create an account on our website. To create an account, you are required to provide certain information to VCQRU, which you recognize and expressly acknowledge, is personal information allowing others, including VCQRU, to identify you. VCQRU will not sell or market any personal information that you provide to us.

IV. SERVICES

VCQRU may collect information in order to, among other things, accurately categorize and respond to a Subscriber's and/or Member's inquiry and deliver appropriate Services levels.

V. CONTENTS OF YOUR ACCOUNT

VCQRU stores and maintains certain forms and contents stored in your account. Use of VCQRU's Services signifies your consent to any transfer of such contents outside of your country. In order to prevent loss of data due to errors or system failures, we also keep backup copies of data including the contents of your account and such contents may remain on our Services even after deletion or termination of your account.

VI. VISITOR DETAILS

We may use the Internet Protocol address, browser type, browser language, referring URL, files accessed, errors generated, time zone, operating system and other visitor details collected in our log files to analyze the trends, administer the website, track visitor's movements and to improve our website.

VII. COOKIES

We may use session and/or persistent cookies with respect to the VCQRU Services. We may also, from time to time, retain an independent third party to perform an analysis of the statistical and aggregate data and other information with respect to our Services. Such aggregated information is not personally identifiable and is used to improve the functionality and/or use of our Services and future product offerings. Such third parties may, at their option, employ the use of cookies in the provision of their third party services. VCQRU does not have access to these third party cookies nor are we responsible for them.

VIII. YOUR OBLIGATIONS

You have certain obligations imposed by applicable law or regulations or by the VCQRU Terms of Use Agreement. You must, at all times, respect the terms and conditions of this VCQRU Privacy and Security Policy, including but not limited to any intellectual property rights, which may belong to third parties. You must not disseminate, distribute and/or download any information which may be deemed to be injurious, offensive, violent or racist. Any violation of these obligations and guidelines in the VCQRU Terms of Use Agreement or in the VCQRU Privacy and Security Policy may lead to the termination or suspension of your access to or license of the Services by VCQRU, at its sole option.

IX. CHILDREN'S ONLINE PRIVACY PROTECTION

Children are not eligible to use VCQRU's Services. Minors should not submit any personal information to VCQRU and/or use the VCQRU Services. VCQRU does not knowingly collect personal information from minors who are under 18 years of age.

X. LEGAL DISCLAIMER

It is possible that we may need to disclose personal information when required by law, such as responses to civil or criminal subpoenas, or other requests by law enforcement personnel. We will disclose such information in the event that we have a good-faith and reasonable belief that it is necessary to comply with a court order, judicial proceeding, subpoena, or other legal process or request to VCQRU brought in any country throughout the world, or to exercise our legal rights or defend against legal claims.

XI. FORUMS/CHATS/BLOGS/DIRECTORY

If you choose to use a bulletin board or directory, import a blog, or participate in a chat room, you should be aware that any personally identifiable information you choose to provide there can be read, collected and/or used by other parties and that such personally identifiable information could be used to send you unsolicited messages. VCQRU is not responsible for any personally identifiable information that you choose to submit with respect to these forums.

XII. SURVEYS AND POLLS

As a Subscriber or Member with respect to VCQRU Services, you may receive requests from time to time to participate in market research, including but not limited to certain polls and surveys which may be submitted by other VCQRU Subscribers or Members. If you decide to participate in such surveys or polls, you acknowledge that you are responsible for the provision of any and all of your personal and/or other information in response to such poll or survey.

XIII. ACCESSING AND CHANGING YOUR ACCOUNT INFORMATION

You can review the personal information that you have provided to us and make any desired changes to such information by logging in to your account on the VCQRU website. Please be aware that even after we have processed your request for such a change, VCQRU may retain certain residual information in the backup and/or archival copies of VCQRU's database.

XIV. LINKS FROM VCQRU WEBSITE

Certain pages of our website may, from time to time, contain external links. You should verify and validate any and all privacy practices of other websites. We encourage you not to provide personal information, without first assuring yourself of the privacy policies of such other websites. VCQRU is not responsible in any way for any use and/or misuse of any personal information or other information provided by you at such other websites.

XV. SECURITY

Access to personal information and/or your data at VCQRU is password-protected and PCI compliant. VCQRU will use a credit card processing company with respect to the billing of Services fees and such third parties may use such personally identifiable information solely to provide such billing services. VCQRU also audits its system, from time to time, for possible vulnerabilities. It is your responsibility to protect the security of any of your login information. Emails, instant messaging and other similar methods of communication may not be encrypted, and we urge you not to use these means or methodologies for the communication of any confidential information.

XVI. VCQRU EMPLOYEES

VCQRU's employees have years of experience in managing and assessing security and data protection risk. Only VCQRU employees with the highest level of clearance have access to our datacenter and the data contained therein. VCQRU limits access to customer data to only a designated number of its employees with a legitimate need to access such data in order to provide technical, support and other important services for VCQRU's customers. VCQRU, on a continuing basis, reviews its then current security policies and develops new policies and/or procedures with respect to management, knowledge sharing, escalation procedures and day-to-day operations. VCQRU routinely and regularly audits its security policies and procedures and those same policies and procedures are regularly reviewed by VCQRU executive management. Any access to customer data is solely on an as needed basis by authorized VCQRU employees or by VCQRU senior management employees in order to provide and perform maintenance and/or support services for our customers, and in order to maintain or improve the quality of our Services.

XVII. VCQRU NETWORK SECURITY

VCQRU's network security system and infrastructure helps to protect our customers' data against sophisticated attacks. All VCQRU Services are protected and screened by intrusion detection systems. Access to the VCQRU network is tightly and comprehensively controlled and strictly audited by appropriate VCQRU personnel. Communications between a customer's computer and VCQRU's servers is encrypted and VCQRU applications operate in a secure operating system that VCQRU believes minimizes vulnerabilities.

XVIII. REDUNDANCY

In a cloud computing environment, certain computer resources may at some point fail to operate – VCQRU has designed its infrastructure in light of that potential failure. The core cloud computing infrastructure provides redundancy and high availability at every level, from multiple Tier-1 ISP connections, redundant networking equipment, and servers. VCQRU's Services are built on this infrastructure with the ability to quickly add or change service capacity in response to customer load or in uncommon situation where a compute infrastructure experiences a failure. VCQRU monitors each of its Services critical performance metrics to track availability and performance. Finally, VCQRU periodically backs up appropriate data across multiple servers so as to protect that same data in the event of a service failure.

XIX. PHYSICAL SECURITY

VCQRU Services are hosted in secure, certified facilities that are protected from physical attacks and from natural disasters. Such datacenters are monitored on a 7x24 basis and entrance to the datacenters is controlled and restricted to a select group of authorized personnel. Multiple forms of authentication must be used in order to enter any such datacenter and the datacenters are guarded and protected 7 days a week, 24 hours a day.

XX. CLOSING YOUR ACCOUNT

In the event you close your VCQRU account, we will remove your name and other personally identifiable information. VCQRU may retain certain data contributed or provided by you if we reasonably believe that it may be necessary to prevent fraud or abuse; it is retained for legitimate business purposes (such as analysis of aggregated, non-personally identifiable data for account recovery purposes); or, if it is required by law.

XXI. ANONYMOUS DATA

VCQRU may accumulate and aggregate certain anonymous statistical and related data in order to improve the performance and functionality of its Services, to develop new products and/or Services or to analyze the usage of VCQRU's Services. VCQRU may use aggregated anonymous data for such purposes as VCQRU, in its sole discretion, deems to be appropriate.

XXII. SERVICE VALIDITY

VCQRU Services are by default valid for six months after the first invoicing. Kindly reach out to management (contact@VCQRU.com) for extension of the services.

XXIII. RIGHTS

VCQRU reserves the right to withdraw services if deemed necessary.
